

SEPTEMBER 8, 2010– Quarterly Meeting

“A PRACTICAL GUIDE FOR ENVIRONMENTAL INSPECTIONS”

The goal of this seminar is to provide Code Enforcement and Health Officers with the scientific principles, concepts, and methodologies required to understand, identify and analyze environmental problems natural and human-made, to evaluate the relative risks associated with these problems and to examine alternative solutions for resolving them while protecting ourselves.

Presenting this exciting seminar will be Dr. Richard Young, PhD, REM, PE, Executive Director for the National Registry of Environmental Professionals, and his son Christopher Young, Rem, Director of Operations for the National Registry of Environmental Professional.

Dr. Young has been developing this program since October of 2009 just for IACE. Some of the topics this course will touch on:

- Environmental Laws and Regulations
- Geology, Hydrogeology and Toxicology
- Environmental ethics, legal obligations and personal liability
- Physical Site Reconnaissance
- What is needed to conduct a proper and safe inspection.

This training seminar will give every CEO and Health Officer the proper tools needed to better prepare ourselves at handling the day to day environmental issues that plague all of us.

The meeting will be held at Elgin Community College, Business Conference Center located at 1700 Spartan Drive, Elgin, Illinois. Note – Program will begin at 9:30 AM.

The program cost (including lunch) is thirty dollars ($30.00) for current IACE members. For non-members of IACE the program cost is forty dollars ($40.00). Due to increasing costs only coffee and tea will be served in the morning. Members that are planning on attending must return the enclosed form on or before Friday, September 3, 2010. Registrations received after that date will be thirty-five dollars ($35.00) for members and forty-five dollars ($45.00) for non-members. Registrations can be faxed to Bob Roels at (847) 818-5329 or emailed to broels@mountprospect.org.
